Woman's Duties.

A woman who keeps her house in order and has the care of a family, has just as much responsibility as the man who provides the means to carry on the housekeeping. She is the deserving of the more credit since the demands on her strength are greater. The everlasting sameness about her duties, and the confinement necessary to carry them out is very trying to the nervous system, this produces a strain on the mind that makes her irritable, cross, and dissatisfied, which is just as much a disease as rheumatism or catarrh. If the nerves can be built up and made strong by medicine of some kind, this feeling is changed to one of cheerfulness and pleasure in her duties. The medicine that makes strong steady nerves, and prevents disease by building up the entire system, is Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, a tablet to take at meal time. Cures nervous prostration by making rich blood, feeding the nerves, and making solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds a week. This medicine is sold by druggists for 75 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $2, or sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price. Write us about your case. Address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, 128 S. What Time Proves.

This thing of being sick and looking for a cure is a mighty serious business. People are not given to joking even at the first sympton of the approach of the grim destroyer. They do not want to be the subjects of experiment, but want medicine that had the test of years behind it. A medicine that has been made and used for 20 years give assurance of its worth, and can be taken with faith that they have the very best cure the world affords. All this can be said about Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills as a remedy for sick headache, dyspepsia, and indigestion, it begins right at the source of the trouble and the removes the cause. We will send a sample box of these pills free, or a full box on receipt of 25 cents. Sold by all druggists for 25 cents per box, or address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, 128 S. ELECTRIC ROAD TO REDWOOD

We have had an interview with a prominent official of the United Railroads and we are in a position to state that the company will very shortly push its San Mateo line to Redwood City and Palo Alto. At the latter point it expects to meet the San Jose lines and thus give passengers a continued line from San Francisco to Los Gatos. What that will mean for the country between thoss two points can best be estimated by recalling that the electric railroads now take passengers from San Francisco to San Mateo for twenty-five cents, where as the old steam rate was sixty cents one way—ten cents more than the present round-trip rate. The fare from Los Gatos to San Jose has been cut down from fifty cents to twenty-five cents and we are assured that the rate from San Francisco to San Jose will not be over fifty cents, by the electric roads, and that commutation tickets will be sold very much under that figure. Of course cheap fares mean an increase in suburban travel and increased number of persons residing in the country and the small towns in preference to the city, which is a good thing all round. It has had the effect in the East of more than quatripling the price of land, and has counteracted the tendency, so marked in our time towards the city, from the country. With cars running every fifteen minutes, and landing passengers right in the centre of San Francisco on the one hand and of the various towns of the other, people can easily live at Redwood, Palo Alto, Menlo Park, or Santa Clara, as in San Francisco. Express trains will be run to through points, and with the improvements that are being made in electric travel, of which the recents experiments in Germany are especially notable, cars being run at a speed of 130 miles an hour, it will take only a short time for business men or mechanics to reach their stores or shops from their suburban homes. "Can you compete with the time on the steam railroads?" I asked the gentleman who told me all this, "Yes, we can beat them, beyond question," he replied. "We wili yet reach San Jose from San Francisco inside of an hour, and I believe it will not be five years before we do it?"

THE REDWOOD FORESTS.

Despite the popular impression that the redwoods of California have been almost exterminated, the fact remains that there are billions of dollars worth of commercial redwoods which have never been disturbed by the woodman's axe. The mistake has arisen over the fact that the commercial redwood, Sequoia sepervirens, is frequently confused with its cousin, the Big Tree, Sequoia gigantea, of which there are only a few scattered groves now standing. In Humboldt county alone, says an article published by the California Promotion Committee, there is enough commercial redwood timber to last the mills of the county at their present capacity about 150,000,000 feet yearly for three centuries. The redwood forests in Humboldt county are estimated to have originally covered 538,000 acres. About 47,000 acres have been cut leaving 491,000 acres still standing. Estimating this timber at 100,000 feet of lumber per acre, there is still an untouched reserve of over 19,000,000,000 feet of redwood lumber. Timber cruisers have estimated that a railroad through Humboldt and Mendocino counties would tap between five and six million dollars worth of merchantable redwood.—San Jose Herald.

Depriving the negro of the electoral franchise is not entirely satisfactory to the South. In Arkansas it proposed to supplement this by taking away his breathing franchise.

Torres, center; C. Curran, r. f. Weather permitting, there will be a game with the Woodside team to-morrow and a return game will be played with Mountain View here, next Sunday.

He Denies Mismanagement.

George Y. Bollinger, through his attorneys, ex-Judge C. W. Slack and V. A. Scheller, Tuesday, filed an answer in the Superior Court of Santa Clara County to the petition of William and George Pullan, wherein they ask to have him removed from the office as one of the executors of the will of Mrs. Mary Pullan, deceased. He denies that he has wasted or embezzled or in any way mismanaged the property or funds of the estate, or that he is about to commit any fraud against the estate. He denies that he is in possession of any property or funds belonging to the estate. He denies specifically that he is in possession of a one-fifth interest in the Quivey ranch, or of a one-fifth interest in lot A of the Bascom tract, or of the sum of $10,649.84 belonging to the estate of Mary Pullan, but avers the fact to be that he holds the property and funds referred to as his own and has so claimed since January 1, 1900, and prior thereto. He asks that the prayer of petitioners be denied, and that it be decreed that the property and funds described are his own and that the estate of Mary Pullan has no interest therein. The litigants were formerly residents of this county.

Laswell-Ryan Marriage.

Miss Alice Laswell formerly of Redwood City, a daughter of Wm. Laswell, and Alexander Ryan chief engineer of the steamship Californian, were united in marriage in San Francisco Wednesday night at 8 o'clock and the ceremony was followed by a wedding supper. A tinge of romance surrounds the wedding. Miss Laswell's brother George was first assistant-chief to Mr. Ryan on the Californian, but on the last trip became ill and died soon after the vessel reached port. During his illness his chief spent much time with him and in that way met his bride, who attended her brother. This is the first return of the ship since then, but the marriage is the result of the meeting. Thursday morning the bride and groom left for Los Angeles, where they will remain until Tuesday, when they will return in time to enable Mr. Ryan to sail with his ship for Honolulu and New York. Mrs. Ryan has for some time past conducted the Santa Rosa Sanitarium. Captain Barron of the Californian, and Mrs. Goodwin the bride's sister, accompanied the couple at the wedding.

Impressive Services.

The following article was inadvertantly omitted in the last issue of the Times-Gazette: The solemn and impressive services at the Catholic Church in this city during Holy Week were attended by very large congregations. The music at all the services was extremely well rendered. On Easter Day LaHache's Mass of the Blessed Sacrament was beautifully sung by the following ladies: Mrs. Elizabeth Hanson, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Holden, the Misses Laura Hanson, Kate Kerr, Mary and Gertrude Geary, Belle Vallejo; under the able direction of Miss Hadler, who also presided at the organ. The processional before the high mass on Easter Day was Gounod's Marche Pontificale, played by organ and orchestra. Orchestra—Mrs. Harry Jamison, the Misses Evelyn Curran, Viola Hanson, Lillie Rumble, Jessie Fitzpatrick, May Murphy, Kate Kerr, Celia Hedge, and Master Maurice Goldsmith.

Will Rest Beside His Mother.

To-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock the last sad rites of the Catholic Church will be held at the Church of the Nativity, Menlo Park, over the remains of John P. Conde, a private in the U. S. Marine Corps who met his death in our far Eastern possessions something over a year ago, while in the discharge of his duty. Young Conde was well known in our county, and his untimely death, while serving in defense of his country, is a matter of sincere regret. The body will be placed beside that of his mother in Holy Cross Cemetery, Menlo Park, who died previous to her boy's enlistment, unconscious of the fact that she had given unto the world one who would and did die for the flag under whose stars and stripes he first saw the light.

Burglary in Redwood.

An enterprising stranger (that is, his identity is as yet unknown to the officers) entered T. P. Maloney's butcher shop some time Thursday night or Friday morning and helped himself to the contents of the cash register, $6.40, and a Cleveland bicycle, No. 18598, which was left in the back room for his convenience. He effected his entry by cutting a hole in the screen door, through which he reached and pulled back the lock. The crime was not discovered until the butchers went to to the shop to get their meat for the delivery wagons, and by that time the burglar had a good start. The officers are now on his track and hope to round him up very shortly.

The California Northwestern Railway, the picturesque route of California, will run one of its popular excursions from San Francisco to Ukiah, in Mendocino county, Sunday, April 24th. The fare will be only $2 for the round trip. Leave Tiburon ferry, foot of Market street, San Francisco, at 8:30 a. m., and on the return leave Ukiah at 5 p. m. As is well known, the company looks carefully after the comfort of its patrons on these excursions and no tickets are sold beyond the number of seats provided, thus insuring a seat for everybody. Tickets may be procured at the ticket offices, 650 Market street (Chronicle Building), and Tiburon Ferry, foot of Market street.

Death of a Well Known Man.

David Coulter who died at San Jose last Monday and was buried the following day at Mountain View was well known in this county. He was born and raised at Mayfield. When quite young he learned the blacksmith trade and afterwards conducted the business now carried on by S. A. Ponce. Many years ago his father farmed the land on which the Stanford University now stands.

Death of Fred Desirello.

Fred Desirello, former constable at South San Francisco, was blown to pieces in his cabin at Millwood, Fresno county, last week Thursday. He was employed by the Sanger Lumber Company in blasting redwood stumps and while carelessly handling some sticks of dynamite he caused an explosion which shattered his cabin and killed him instantly.

I. G. Knowles Estate.

M. Pixley, T. S. Montgomery and H. D. Matthews have filed in the Superior Court of Santa Clara County their inventory and appraisement of the estate of I. G. Knowles, which they find to consist of real and personal property of the value of $14,950.

The Cut Off.

Work on the Bay Shore Cut Off was commenced this week at Baden. The work of testing for a solid foundation was begun and within a month a large force of men will be put on to rush the new road to an early completion.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

W. J. Dingee Appointed Administrator of the Hayward Estate.

Wednesday last L. W. Shinn and Howard G. Stevenson, executors of the last will of Alvinza Hayward, tendered their resignation and the same was accepted by Judge Buck. Their final account was also presented and it will be heard to-day. At the same time, the application of W. J. Dingee to be appointed administrator of the estate will be acted upon. Mr. Dingee has been nominated by Mrs. Charity Hayward and for some time he has been her confidential agent.

Mrs. Hayward, through her attorney, Garret W. McMnerny, filed a document with the County Recorder in which half of the Hayward estate goes to Emma Rose, the wife of A. W. Rose of New York and the only child of Mrs. Hayward and the late Alvinza Hayward. The document recites that the will of the deceased is now admitted to probate and that Mrs. Hayward is the sole legatee and should any other will be discovered and admitted to probate then in that event Mrs. Rose is to have an undivided one-half interest in all the property willed to Mrs. Hayward. To make the conveyance more binding it states that Mrs. Emma Rose shall have a one-half interest in all the community property owned by her father at the time of his death, and that it is the intention under the conveyance that Mrs. Hayward and her daughter should share equally in the estate. The will makes no provision for Mrs. Rose and expressly disinherits her. This, it is said, is on account of the son-in-law. The only consideration named in the document filed by Mrs. Hayward is "love and affection."

LOCAL MERCHANTS FEAST

First Annual Gathering Around the Banquet Table.

Mirth, Music and Oratory Make Time Pass Pleasantly into Local History.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Merchants' Association of Redwood took place at Odd Fellows' hall Wednesday night, April 13th, and will long be remembered as a social reunion.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 by President Mourot, and following the election of officers and the transaction of other business an adjournment was had to the banquet hall, where the choicest viands and ripest wines were discussed for an hour and a half.

After the serving of the cafe noir and cigars A. D. Walsh, who acted as toastmaster, rapped for order after a few appropriate remarks that were heartily applauded introduced Joseph Stultz, State President of the Grocers' Association, who delivered a well-timed and eloquent address describing vividly what the association has done for the merchants.

The toast, "Our Local Association," was responded to by Henry Mourot, who praised the loyalty of our home merchants.

A. H. Powers, editor of the Grocers' Advocate, ably responded to the toast "Retrospect."

Mr. Sherman spoke eloquently to the toast, the "Palo Alto Association." He told in glowing words what the association had done for the Palo Alto merchants and closed his remarks by urging a strong fealty to the local association.

"Uncle Sam's Store" was responded to by Geo. W. Lovie, as follows:

The most enterprising, the ablest and wealthiest merchant in America is Uncle Sam, and his most important business is the postal store with its 90,000 postmasters, its army of clerks, city and rural carriers, railway clerks and inspectors. This gigantic retail store forms a vast machine which is as necessary to the transaction of business as United States currency.

Ben Franklin was the first postmaster-general this government had, and at the end of the first year's service, he proudly informed Congress that he had succeeded in giving every large city in the United States a weekly mail. To-day the little town of Redwood City has twenty daily mails.

This great retail merchant sold during the last fiscal year nearly $400,000,000 in money orders and stamps, and other stock amounting to $135,000,000, without giving in return a single trading stamp.

At the Chicago postoffice one and a half million letters are mailed every day. At our local office an average of 800 letters are received daily and about 500 pieces of second-class mattee, while 700 letters are despatched — a total of 2000 pieces handled each day.

The annual receipts of the office have increased from $3000 in 1898, $3500 in 1900, $4200 in 1902 and over $5000 in 1904. An unerring indication that the business of the community has steadily and materially advanced in the same proportion.

The first postage stamp was invented by Postmaster Henry Waterman, of Millbury, Mass., in 1839. When he was appointed postmaster letters were cancelled by the postmaster writing his name across the envelope, with the amount due. He conceived the idea of a stamp and designed one which the United States Government adopted. Eight million stamps are now sold daily.

The many retail establishments operated by Uncle Sam are the most democratic and cosmopolitan places on earth. At the general delivery window of the postoffice gather the rich and the poor, the old and the young, foreigners and natives, saints and sinners, and all await their turn to exchange greetings with Uncle Sam's representative. All day long a mixed procession marches in and out of the front door, and a more interesting place to study human nature does not exist on earth.

When a new crank comes to town he makes a straight path to the postoffice, and then the festivities begin. We have all kinds of manifestations of preliminary insanity and often besotted "cussedness." We meet the man who demands his mother-in-law's mail, or insists upon collecting a money order payable to his wife. Then we have the man who puts up a $5 note in a letter without bidding it an affectionate farewell; also the nervy citizen who asks permission to post notices all over the lobby walls.

Scores of regular attendants at churches look the clerk squarely in the eye and assure him that there is no writing in the Christmas package, when an examination discloses a four-page letter. Somewhat more intelligent is the young man who, to save a penny, writes postal cards to his sweetheart, and, to keep the clerks from reading writes them in Latin.

One day an elderly lady asked for mail and the clerk, not knowing her, demanded her name. "My name!" she shrieked in anger, "that is none of your business, young fellow, you just dig up my letter."

A young girl, not long since, stepped up to the clerk and said: "My brother sent me a letter with a dollar bill in it for a present, and I never got it." Then there was a silence which the lady broke by wrathfully exclaiming, "Well, what are you going to do about it? I want my dollar."

But the laugh is not always on the patrons of the office. Sometimes the P. M. is reminded that all is vanity.

A fellow down in Texas was appointed postmaster in a small town. For a week after he took charge the railway mail clerks reported to the bureau chief that the new P. M. was not sending mail from his office, whereupon the chief wired the new P. M. asking why he sent no mail to the trains. In reply the chief received a message as follows: "I know my bizz, I ain't got the sack near full yet."

A Swede gave his name as Ernest Bull. The garrulous old postmaster glared at the poor Swede a moment and bawled out: "No. There is nothing here for bull, cow nor calf." In about ten days an inspector put in an appearance and explained to the postmaster that his talents were better suited for a comic opera than for the drudgery around a postoffice.

Such are some of the trials and tribulations that beset the thorny path of the retail dealer in stamps and money orders.

While his head rests not upon a downy pillow, nor his body upon a bed of roses, he is yet content and happy in proportion to the size of his salary. If he pleases his patrons and follows their wishes in all they demand, an indictment by a United States grand jury stares him in the face. If he enforces the rules and regulations strictly he becomes, in time, the most unpopular man in his bailiwick and he goes into local history as the poorest postmaster the town ever had. Nevertheless, few postmasters die, none resign, and it would be hard to find one not willing to hang onto his job during his natural life.

F. H. Thorpe, Secretary and Attorney for the association, delivered a rattling good address. He traced the growth of the organization from its inception in July, 1902, and showed what it had accomplished. He explained the cost to the board and to individual members. His remarks were made up from statistics showing how the machinery of the board was run and how the members could take advantage of it at a trifling outlay. Mr. Thorpe, with a feeling of pride, said the local association compared favorably with the most successful in the State, and these remarks were fully endorsed by the State President, Mr. Stultz.

"The College City" was responded to by Mr. Downing of Palo Alto; "Legislation," by Mr. Wainke of Alameda.

P. P. Chamberlain responded to the toast, "Pioneers." He made a telling spech in referring to the pioneer merchants of Redwood City, and he became reminiscent in speaking of days of long ago.

"Local Government" was brilliantly responded to by D. R. Stafford.

The banquet was one of the best ever served in Redwood and the table decorations and surroundings were unsurpassed. The meeting dispersed in the wee small hours and the visitors were unstinted in their praise of the hospitality shown them.

The officers of the local association are: H. Mourot, president; P. P. Chamberlain, vice-president; F. H. Thorpe, secretary and attorney; D. R. Stafford, delegate to National Association.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Robinson, a Granddaughter of Horace Hawes, Will Marry.

The expected has happened in the announcement by Mrs. James A. Robinson of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elena Robinson, to Mr. Martin-Kay, an English gentleman who is at present farther from San Francisco than his fiancee, who is now in Rome. She expects to return home in the fall and the wedding will be one of next year's events. It seems a shame, selfishly speaking, that so delightful a girl as Miss Robinson should be carried away by a man who will probably take her to the end of the world to live. Nevertheless it cannot be denied that she will have a life full of intelligent, interesting travel.

Mr. Martin-Kay is, by profession, a mining engineer with the Egyptian Soudan Company, composed of the wealthy men of influence in England. He is at present in the Soudan, and it is probable will there take his bride. That the place has a pleasant social side, despite isolation, comparatively speaking, is not surprising to those familiar to the English method of settlement. There is, of course, a club, and there are, too, comfortable houses, a college, railroads, and every modern convenience. Combined with those are opportunities galore to see those things which so many of us long in vain, and those more fortunate see so briefly.

Miss Robinson's friends are eagerly awaiting her return to this country that they may hear more of what reads like a bit of romantic fiction.

Miss Robinson is a granddaughter of Horace Hawes, who was one of the wealthiest men in this section twenty years ago. She was born in Redwood but when quite young left with her parents to reside in San Francisco, and this town has not seen much of her since Mrs. Robinson sold her property here. Miss Elena has much of her mother's dash and beauty and is a charming young woman.

Died at San Gregorio.

Mrs. Lillian Alsford, wife of J. E. Alsford, the San Gregorio farmer, died of pneumonia last week after a short illness, and was buried in Union cemetery on Sunday, the Rev. Thomas Marshall conducting the services. Mrs. Alsford was a native of Gold Run, Placer county, and was aged 46 years. She had lived in San Gregorio for the past twelve years, moving there from here. She was a good woman and was loved by all who knew her. She will be missed not only by her husband but the community in which she lived as well.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued during the week:

Lieutenant W. M. Parker, U. S. A., of Falls Church, Va., and Elizabeth Doyle of San Mateo; Henley McCabbe of San Jose and Lilla Alice Carey of Oakland; Robert Herlihy and Lucy Omen of San Francisco; Antone M. Diaz and May Garcia of Pescadero.

WOODSIDE CHIPS.

WOODSIDE, April 15—Owing to the increased attendance at the West Union school, the trustees of the district have been compelled to enlarge the building, the work being done by William Morrill & Son.

John Kelly has commenced the foundation for a neat cottage on his lot next to the school house. John sees a great future for Woodside and thinks a home of his own the proper thing.

Miss Fannie Walker has returned to San Francisco after successfully nursing her mother who was quite ill with rheumatism.

A dance is on the program for tomorrow night under the auspices of Palo Alto parties. There has not been a dance here for some time, and the chances are favorable for a good time.

The baseball team went to Mayfield last Sunday for a practice game with the team of that place. The score was close, Mayfield taking the lead by a small margin.

The big slide in the road on the grade has been successfully disposed of. The slide was caused by the excessive rainfall and rotting of the old culvert. A new terra cotta culvert has been built and the road put in shape for the heaviest kind of travel.

Miss Edith Bottger has returned from San Francisco where she has been for the last three months taking a course in dress-making. Miss Bottger has gained a thorough knowledge of all the latest Parisian cuts and will no doubt open dress-making parlors in this thriving village.

The home of Edward Dearborn was the scene of a pretty surprise party last Saturday evening. All the young folks of town were present and the evening was merrily spent in dancing, singing, and the sweet strains of Ed Hallet's zonograph which is an orchestra of itself. At midnight the guests retired to the dining-room where a royal spread awaited them. Edward is a jolly fine fellow and all his friends think it just the place to have a jolly good time.

The many friends of Mrs. J. E. Alsford of San Gregorio were grieved to hear of her sudden death last Sunday morning. Several years ago Mrs. Alsford resided here, and will be remembered as a kind neighbor, a woman with a lovable disposition, and a host of friends. In his sad bereavement Mr. Alsford and family have the heartfelt sympathy of all.

Death of Josiah H. Locke.

Josiah Hannibal Locke, one of the pioneer mill men of the State, died Sunday after a brief illness at his residence, 819 Grove street, San Francisco. The deceased was nearly 73 years of age. He was born at Lyman, N. H., and came to California in 1850, making this his home ever since. For twenty-eight years he was identified with Horace Davis in the Golden Gate Flour Mill, and then for a decade he lived on a ranch owned by him near Halfmoon Bay, San Mateo county. Locke, of Halfmoon Bay, and two daughters, Mrs. Horace Nelson of Halfmoon Bay, and Mrs. H. E. C. Fenfier of Sunol. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from he residence to Cypress Lawn cemetery.

The finance committee reports liberal and numerous contributions to the celebration fund.

An Enjoyable Journey.

Prof. J. A. Foshay, Superintendent of Schools, Los Angeles, is organizing a party to leave the Pacific Coast on June 11th, for a tour of Europe, including England, Scotland, Holland, the Rhine, Germany, Italy and France, with a six days' stop-over at St. Louis to see the Exposition. This will be a fine opportunity, especially for school teachers in the long vacation, to visit such historic spots as Stratford-on-Avon, Edinburgh, The Hague, Cologne, Frankfort, Venice, Geneva and Paris, whilst many more of equal interest will be on the itenery of the fortunate members of Prof. Foshay's party. Write Prof. Foshay for particulars.

The school trustees have appointed A. J. Carleton census marshal and he has already began work.

Warren Clarke will be down from San Francisco next week to occupy the Donohoe residence for the summer.

An unusually large number of tourists come to Menlo Park every day now. For some time it looked as though the season would be dull, but now every one feels encouraged over the bright prospects.

The postoffice, depot, and Brown & Tulte's butcher shop, were entered last Saturday evening by unknown persons. The robbers got away with the insignificent sum of $1.45.

The firm of Brown & Tulte, butchers, have dissolved partnership by mutual consent, the former retiring. Mr. Tulte will continue the business and Mr. Brown will move to his old home in Los Gatos.

George E. Russell was here the fore part of the week calling on former associates. On May 10th, accompanied by his wife, he will leave for the World's Fair. Before returning he will visit the principal cities of the East.

Louis Rondu, David Burwick, Joseph Martinez, and L. A. Felix, sought the streams of La Honda Saturday afternoon for trout and made the best catch of the season. The party succeeded in landing 325 beauties. Mr. Martinez caught a salmon weighing eight pounds. They report fishing good in the La Honda creek.

The many friends of Mrs. Henry A. Macondray who resided here a few years ago will regret to learn the news of her death in San Francisco last Tuesday. Deceased was a charming young woman beloved by all who knew her. Her sudden death is a severe shock to her family and friends. Her husband is absent in Manila.

Mrs. J. B. Coryell took part in the charity entertainment given in San Francisco last evening. Mrs. Coryell recited Tennyson's "Dream of Fair Women." Mrs. Coryell has not appeared in public for some time. Since her husband bought a place at Fair Oaks, and a little heir came to bless their home, both Mr. and Mrs. Coryell have visited San Francisco only on rare occasions.

It is rumored, says the Mayfield correspondent to the San Jose Mercury, that Father Doran of San Francisco, who is the guest of Father Cullen of Mountain View, is soon to succeed Father Cullen in this parish, news that will be received with sincere regret by all classes, for Father Cullen during his pastorate here has won the esteem and endeared himself to all, both in and outside of his church.

Supervisor P. H. McEvoy has appointed I. M. Davis to sprinkle the roads from Santa Cruz avenue to the Bay road, and from there to Ravenswood. John McNally has been selected to lay the dust on all the streets around town and the road as far as Fair Oaks. Henry Solen will sprinkle all the roads in and around Fair Oaks and as far as Redwood City. The sprinkling for the Improvement Club will be done by Jarvis Murray.

The second section of the Rincon Hill excursion to Sunset Park Sunday stopped here and at once the hoodlum element on the train made an effort to wreck the nearby saloons. At the approach of the toughs the bars were closed. However, the Lisbon saloon remained open and the young hoodlums began to carry off the contents when they were met by Constable Cronk who with a few well directed blows put the quietus on two. With much difficulty the officers dispersed the roughs. It is understood depredations were committed all along the line of the coast division by the hoodlum element on the train. It is to be hoped the Southern Pacific will in future see its way clear not to stop these excursions here.

There was a large attendance at the parish picnic committees Sunday evening. Attractive posters were ordered printed and same will be out next week. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Palm Hotel last Tuesday when Wm. Warren and Miss Margaret Lenehan were united in marriage. None but relatives and intimate friends being present. The happy young couple entered the parlor at ten o'clock where they were met by Rev. Father Lyons. They gave their responses to the questions of the priest, the groom in a dignified manner and the bride in sweet womanly tones. The ring was placed on the finger of the bride and "two hearts beat as one." The groom was attended by William Maloney and the bride by her sister, Miss Mamie Lenehan. The parlors were elegantly decorated with the choicest flowers. The bride looked quite charming in a handsome gown of white silk. After congratulations were over a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The table was exquisitely decorated with roses and carnations. Amid a shower of rice and good wishes the young couple left on the noon train for Sacramento, where the honeymoon will be spent. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Warren will reside at Palo Alto. The bride has lived from childhood in Menlo Park and is an estimable young lady and for two years taught in the grammar school, making a good record as a teacher. The groom is engaged in the laundry business in the College City and is a young man well worthy of the bride he has won.
